Minutes:

JIM DiFIORE, Manager of Business Services, said that in previous discussion with VICKI GRECO, Attorney, who was present with the applicant, she indicated she would be requesting an extension of time in order to be able to review the most current report.

ATTORNEY GRECO indicated the report was produced the day before this meeting; therefore, she requested more time to review it. MAYOR GOODMAN said she was entitled to have more time. ATTORNEY GRECO then requested an extension of the license, so that MS. MARKS, who has spent a lot of money on this matter, could continue to work in the interim. COUNCILMAN REESE noted he would be willing to grant a two-week extension.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: MAY 16, 2007

MS. MARKS interjected that right after she received her temporary license, Child Protective Services and police officers kept coming to her house, for a period of about two weeks, alleging that her son was passing out flyers on Fremont Street, but she did not even have a business location at that time. Fortunately, she was able to straighten everything out.

MR. DiFIORE indicated the temporary license would expire 5/16/2007 at midnight. Since the next Council meeting is within three weeks, he suggested allowing the temporary license to expire 6/6/2007 at midnight.

ATTORNEY GRECO requested she be notified within ample time of any other supplemental reports
